find out more in the theatre programme

Professor John Jowett explores the collaboration between Shakespeare and Thomas Middleton – and what these two distinct voices brought to Timon of Athens. Journalist Yannis Palaiologos uncovers the financial and personal crises Greece has experienced throughout its history, and Dr Katharine Craik unravels Timon's alienation to reveal the human emotion underpinning the play. INCLUDES: synopsis, rehearsal photography, cast list and full company biographies.

The first performance of this production took place on 7 December 2018 at the Swan Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon.

The use of video cameras and any other recording equipment in the theatre is strictly forbidden. Photography is not permitted during the performance. Mobile phones and watch alarms should be turned off or deposited in the cloakroom.

Please remember, too, that coughing, whispering and fanning programmes spoils the performance for other members of the audience and can also be distracting to the actors.
