

Resource E: VILLAIN TO HERO!

Examples of imagined future lines for characters in the story:

- Bob Cratchit: Here's to the memory of Mr Scrooge, whose generosity towards my family gave us a wonderful Christmas!
- Mrs Cratchit: I never thought Mr Scrooge could be so generous. He raised my Bob's wages so we could finally feed all seven children properly and keep them healthy.
- Tiny Tim: Because of Mr Scrooge, I get the medicine I need and can look forward to a happy long life like my brothers and sisters.
- Schoolmistress: Here's to Mr Scrooge whose charitable donation to the local school meant that all children can get a better education and escape the workhouse.
- Fred: Mr Scrooge inspired me to go into politics and fight to change the law so the children in our society are protected!
- Mrs Fezziwig: In memory of Mr Scrooge, we are reviewing the health and safety of our factory in which he worked. Better conditions for all!
- Isabel: I remember Mr Scrooge fondly. He was surrounded by his family when he died and his children continue the Ebenezer Scrooge Foundation to help impoverished families.
- Politician: Inspired by the good work and impressive results from the Scrooge Foundation, we are developing similar organisations around the UK. Here's to a Better Britain!
